

It is unbelievable that the American press would allow Sinclair to their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary at all, never mind days before the election. It is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

It is a clear abuse of Sinclairs power. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Many citizens rely upon main stream media for their news-- this is exploitive. It is a sad day for democracy in America.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
